NEW JERSEY HOME & GARDEN SHOW ADDS MAJOR GARDEN SHOWCASE AT THE NEW JERSEY CONVENTION CENTER, EDISON, FEBRUARY 21-23

Five gardens, a model Tiny Home, TV interior designer Doug Wilson, painting classes and hundreds of remodeling and design experts to share ideas and specialties with visitors

Edison, N.J., January 22, 2020—Five spectacular gardens will enhance the 31st Annual New Jersey Home & Garden Show February 21-23 at the New Jersey Convention Center and TV personality Doug Wilson of Trading Spaces will share tips on how to achieve high end flair on realistic budgets. Attendees can take painting classes, browse and purchase the work of artisans and craftsmen, enjoy a model Tiny Home and study life-size mood boards designed for small rooms. In addition to a classic car auction, visitors will meet more than 200 remodelers, contractors, interior designers, landscapers and kitchen & bath designers.

“We’ve added a major Garden Showcase to the show this year, in response to visitor requests,” said Eric Udler, producer. “The new Garden Showcase will feature more than 4,500 square feet of innovative landscape design, with plants, water features, hardscapes, retaining walls, pergolas and pavers from established and popular local suppliers including Zimmerman Landscaping, Land Sculpture, Amato’s Garden Center, Deep Roots LLC and Livingston Park Nursery.

Visitors will be inspired by Amish Mike’s model Tiny Home, decorated as a charming guest or pool house in only 12 x 18 square feet. Interior designer/TV personality Doug Wilson, known for his cheeky humor on the hit show Trading Spaces, will give a presentation and answer questions at 4:30 pm and 6:30 pm Friday, Feb. 21; 12:30 pm and 3:30 pm on Saturday, Feb. 22 and 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, Feb. 23.
